Nancy Wynne Talks of Engagements Announced in Holiday Times-She Tells of the Valentines' Dance on Saturday Night--Other Events

HAS it not been a beautiful long holidays with their father, Dr. Richard Norris, of 500 North Twentieth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Cassard, of balls and wedding dates and all kinds of things. There's Miss Anna Sartori's engagement, which is announced today by her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Rittenhouse street. Mrs. Cassard's mother, Mrs. Bradford Knight, of 2208 Rittenhouse street. Mrs. Cassard before her recent wedding was Miss

Frank A. Sartori, of Germantown.

Frank A. Sartori, of Germantown.

Miss Sartori is a sister of Frank Sartori, Jr., and a niece of Mr. Nathaniel

Knowles and the Rev. Archibald

Knowles. She came out several years Knowles. She came out several years ago and has been very popular in the younger set. She is engaged to Captain Allan Hanson Snowden, of Baktmore. Captain Snowden is the son of Mr. Wilton Snowden and the late Mrs. Snowden, of that city. He served with the Fifty-first Infantry overseas during the war and is now at Fort Benning, Ga.

Then there was Josephine Jenks' engagement, which we talked about on Saturday, to James Carey Warren, and one of the "twins" to Freddie Muller. I never know which is which Sanders, they are so much alike, and yet as you talk to each one they are entirely different. That sounds like a bull, but it's true of all twins who look very much afike. They usually have very distinctive personalities. Anita and her sister are very popular. They are cousins of Anita Evras Adams and of Mrs. Thomas Humphreys.

cousins of Anita Evens Adams and of Mrs. Thomas Humphreys.

Fred Muller lives with his mother, Mrs. Auguste F. Muller, and his sister, Miss Gladys Muller, in Chestnut Hill. His brother, Dr. William Muller, married Miss Marie Le Brou and his sister, tae former Miss Isabel Muller, is the wife of Chattin Wetherill. Another brother is Bartow Muller. He is the compest of the family.

THERE were two dances in the week-end. The Harry Valentines gave one for Dorothy, who is a debutante, you know, on Saturday night at the Philadelphia Cricket Club, and last evening the Hebards gave a dance for their daughter Julia's debut. Julia. you remember, was quite ill earlier in the season with typhoid fever, so her debut was postponed until last night.

THERE were many dinners before the Valentine party and Dorothy looked stunning in a light blue crepe satin with panels of silver lace on the bodice and straps over the houlders. There was also a girdle of pearls and the skirt was a long circular one. Mrs. Valentine was very smart in a gown of old gold lace draped at the left side and fastened with an ornament of old blue feathers with an ornament of old blue feathers and flowers.

Saraellen Richardson wore a levely frock at that dance, too. It was of salmon colored crepe romaine, made in the obj-fashioned style, with tight bodfee and full skirt. There was a purple flower at the left side of the gown, which was quite wonderfully blended in Tope's tea for Mrs. Hazard on Sacurday afternoon. It was so nice to see the regain after so many menths. I found her looking very well. And, by the way, she lives in Syracuse, not I'tica, as I said the other day. I knew it was one of those cities on the way from New York to Rochester (you pass) from New York to Rochester (you pass through both on the train), but I got mixed on which was which. Mrs. Haz-ard, you remember, was Miss Nancy Cope. She married about a year ago, and had not been home except for an over-night visit since then until this time. She were a very becoming freek of brown necordion-pleated georgette over a slip of corn-colored silk. There was a bertha of cream lace about the shoulders, which just suited her. Mrs. Cope had members of the family in for over-night visit since then until this ope had members of the family in for a on Sunday afternoon, too, as the Hazards had to return today.

MMMY had a wonderful number of presents and a most beautiful time on Christmas Day; but somebow this toorning he seemed a bit low in his and. Mother consulted doctors, of hom Tommy had a wholesome fear. For, be it known doctors had sometimes given him nasty tasting things to take. So doctor decided to win the young man's confidence, and said in a joyial for Christmas?' Tommy, what did you get ing smile and answered truthfully: "I cot trains, and horses, and automobiles, and candy, and canes, and turkey, and cranberry, and 'tatoes, and to cream, and candy and a stomach ache."
